

New faces

PURIFIED AIR has recently strengthened their sales team with two new appointments. Andy Bates has joined the company as a salesman and is responsible for selling the complete range of environmental control products into the hospitality, commercial and leisure sectors, whilst Lisa Chalkley has been appointed to the telesales department.

- Ends -